

Oil Treatment for Stomach Troubles

A simple prescription made up of a combination of pure vegetable oils is producing wonderful results for sufferers from stomach, liver and intestinal troubles. The remedy, which is said to have originated in France, where it has been used for years by the peasantry, was introduced into this country by George H. Mayr, a leading Chicago druggist, who cured himself of severe stomach, liver and intestinal troubles by its use. Those who have used it say the first dose is sufficient to convince any one of its remarkable merit, and that within twenty-four hours the sufferer feels like a new person. This medicine, which has become known as Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction.

NOT GUILTY OF CHICKEN STEALING

William Gudeahn of Taftville Acquitted by Jury in Superior Court—Jury Out About Half an Hour—Mrs. Daisy Phillips on Probation With Jail Sentence to be Served if She Violates Good Conduct Promise.

William Gudeahn, residing in Taftville, was placed on trial in the criminal superior court at New London on the night of the 16th of January for the theft of a chicken from the coop of Daniel W. Gore, on Hamilton avenue, Norwich, on the night of the 16th of January. Judge Eshumway sentenced the woman to ten months in jail, suspended execution of sentence, and placed her on probation in the custody of Probation Officer Richard W. Mansfield, to whom she is to report at least once a week and oftener if required to do so.

Sentence on Kissel Deferred.
State Attorney Hull moved for a sentence in the case of Michael Kissel, a Norwich Pole, who pleaded guilty to the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. Attorney Daniel M. Cronin, counsel for Kissel, explained that he had made a careful investigation of the circumstances of the case and found that the accused had been in the country about two years, living in Norwich most of that time, where he was at first employed in a bleachery. He lost his job at the time of the general business depression, but later obtained a position in a paper mill.

Put on Probation.
Daisy F. Phillips, whom the jury found guilty of simple assault in slaying her husband, William Phillips, with a razor last March, was sentenced during the morning session of court to ten months in jail and then placed on probation by Judge Eshumway. Sentence was pronounced on the motion of State Attorney Hull. Attorney Morgan immediately after the motion made a plea for leniency in behalf of the prisoner. He stated that he had known William Phillips, the husband, for about four years, and that he was a good man and a good father. He was a man at heart, but when "he was in his cups" he did things that were not just right. The Phillips woman he had known a comparatively short time, a few months ago she was presented in police court on the charge of soliciting on the streets, and at that time was placed on probation, and the facts as he has found out did not justify the charge.

Not to Bring Whiskey Home.
In a talk with both Phillips and his wife, he had been promised that if the court saw fit to put her on probation Phillips had promised never to bring whiskey into the house again and that Phillips had promised to abstain from drinking. He pleaded with the court to temper justice with mercy and asked that the accused be placed on probation. State Attorney Hull said that the Phillips woman had always been disolute and that Phillips was a reformed man, but did not have much control over himself. He thought, however, that it would be better under the circumstances to give the woman a term of about a year and then place her on probation. He did not favor a

STATE ISSUE OF $15,000,000 BONDS.
The divorce system and especially as the party for whom divorce is sought is not at fault through any act of his own. The amendment referred to the insurance clause. Mr. Hyde said the governor was in favor of the proposed amendment. There was a general discussion, Mr. Martin taking a second hold and the leader in opposition, Mr. Taylor. Mr. Danahy declared that when a man became insane he was civilly dead and the wife had as much legal right to marry just as much as would a widow. Mr. Isbell said the amendment simply gave the court a power now exercised by the legislature. Mr. Morton of Saybrook said it would be well to leave this matter to the discretion of the court, and he believed the amendment to be a fair one. Mr. Fenn opposed it, favoring the rich as against the poor and the rich could give bond for support of the insane person divorced. Mr. Peasley explained this matter was within the judgment of the court. This bill was passed as amended.
